"For us Australia is good enough. There are no hardships there, and when we prospect we know what we are doing. None of our whole party of three hundred has made a stick in Alaska. We are all out. Those of us who had grub sold it at Dawson to pay our way back. We are traveling on it now."

The Australians are really much discouraged. They looked neat and when they passed through here some months ago. Now they appear seedy and worn, wear bush beards and inquire the price of a meal at a restaurant before they sit down. I doubt if many will ever get out of the place Thanksgiving feast at the various camps and hospitals;

NEW YORKERS FEASTED. The real big Thanksgiving dinner of yesterday was in the camp of the First New York regiment at Waialae, containing something like 800 men, Late Wednesday eight long tables from the grounds of the Executive building were arranged near the white city beyond Kaalawai, There was one for the officers and seven for the companies. Early yesterday morning the ladies appointed to carry out the feast gathered there. The food was taken out in wagons supplied by Colonel Barber.

It was I o'clock when the companies "fell in" at the tables. At that time appetites were whetted and all were in thorough trim to enjoy the feast, The tables, arranged parallel to each other, were loaded with all the good things afforded by the market and were prettily decorated with flowers and evergreens. On the bill of fare were fish, potatoes, turnips, turkey and cranberry sauce, potato salad chicken salad, bread and butter, chicken pot pie, coffee, ginger ale, soda water, ice cream and cake, nuts, raisins and a half dozen other dishes.

The effort of the ladles was to make the boys feel that they were at home and were having an old time Thanksgiving. In this spirit the soldiers were concordant, and entered into the feast with homelike enthusiasm. The dinner lasted nearly an hour. Nearly an hour more was spent at the tables talking. Several times cheers were proposed for the ladies and were enthusiastically given. Mrs, Dole was manager over all of the feast arrangements at the New York camp. Besides a corps of young ladies, who assisted greatly in entertaining the boys in blue, the following were in charge of the separate tables: Mrs. E. M. Hatch, Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. S. M. Damon, Mrs. Ingalls, Mrs. H. E. Waity, Mrs. T. G. Thrum and Mrs. Harold M. Sewall. These ladies were thanked during the afternoon cordially by individual members of the regiment for the entertainment.

ENGINEERS DINED.

Another 'real pretty feast on Thanksgiving day was at Kapiolani park. About 350 men sat down to it. Grace was said at 12 o'clock sharp. Four long tables covered with snow; written a book which she will call linen flowers in large vases and viands "Hawaii-Nei." William Doxey, the to tempt the gods, presented themselves before the sturdy westerners The attack was immediate, determined and successful. At one table, supervised by Mrs. Robert Lewers, sat the officers of the battalion, with Major Langfitt at the head. At the others were the enlisted men. It was all the heart could desire. In charge of the tables occupied by the enlisted men, were Mrs. John A. McCandless, Mrs. John H. Soper and Miss Nellie Judd. At the conclusion of the feast three cheers were given for the ladies and for the good people of Honolulu.

INDEPENDENCE PARK.

BIG BUSINESS DEAL.

L. B. Kerr Purchases London Bank rupt Stock.

L. B. Kerr, the Queen street dry goods merchant, has returned after a very successful trip abroad. While he was absent, he visited the important manufacturing centers of Europe and made heavy purchases for his house, On his return to London he made the best business deal of his career. He found that the big house of Nemo & Co., 16 Regent street, a very fashionable quarter, had gone into bankrupt-cy; the receiver in charge was anxious to wind up the affairs of the firm, and made an offer to Mr. Kerr, which was accepted on the spot. The offer was to sell the stock at 50 cents on the dollar, spot cash. Mr. Kerr paid the money and in a few days the new goods were packed and shipped to Honolulu. The packages are expected tomorrow and the people will have an opportunity to inspect the goods

LITTLE MERCHANTS.

Pigs and Turkeys Galore-Cheers Upon Cheers from Little Throats-The Little Chaps Have a Glorious Time.

There was quite a little excitement in Fort street yesterday, and though the stores were closed, the sidewalk near The Star office was crowded with little chaps ready for their feast. They began coming about 6 o'clock in the morning and amused themselves till dinner time by running races in to the side streets, playing tag, climb ing the staircase to see what time it was, and returning to announce that it was only nine, or ten, or eleven. But when twelve o'clock arrived the excitement was intense, and they then crowded the staircase and cheered.

At 12:30 promptly they were drawn ip in line and marched up Fort street. along King and up Nuuanu, to Love's bakery, where their feast awaited It was one continuous cheer as they approached the wished for ha ven. The Grace Capitalists Expect to Get to Work in 1899-Maritime Company May Give Up Before.

NEW YORK, November 16.—Mr. E., Cragin of Chicago, who engineered the purchase of the concession for the building of the Nicaragua canal, in the interest of the Grace syndicate, arrived here today on the steamer Allegheny, from Greytown. He was companied by Colonel Bacon and Mr. Eyre, of the firm of Grace & Co., and a corps of civil engineers, belonging to the corporation. says that the syndicate which he represents has full control of the building of the inter-oceanic canal, and the old grant, or Cardenas-Monocal concession, for years held by a syndicate controlled by Warner Miller, has been cancelled. Mr. Cragin says: "This new deal is dated when the Warner Miller contract is supposed to end-in 1899. There is, however, a possibility that the Maritime Company will give up the work when they understand the provisions of the new syndicate purchase. This may permit a cancel-lation of the old contract in advance of the time set and that would give us a chance to begin work immedi-
